

Let the Zoo

Come to You!

This program is designed to visit nursing and assisted living homes, retirement homes, senior centers, adult club meetings and adult social groups.

A Zoomobile visit can be an enriching and stimulating experience for all involved. This flexible 1-hour program offers educational information with a light touch. Participants will be provided with the opportunity to see animals up close as well as touch most of them. There will also be plenty of time throughout the program for questions.

Please choose one of the five programs listed below:

The Zoo: Then & Now

This program begins with a short PowerPoint presentation that focuses on the Pittsburgh Zoo's century of growth. The presentation includes photos of the zoo as it stood in 1898 and how it looks today. The audience will then be introduced to three small live animals from the Zoo's Education Department. Please note: a room that can be completely darkened is needed for this program.

Animal Biofacts

Choose from: Zoorific Animals, Pennsylvania Animals, Endangered Species or Extreme Animals
Furs, pelts, skulls, skins, feathers, and other "touchable" animal biofacts will provide participants with the opportunity to feel different textures, observe different patterns and learn more about the animals found all over the world. The audience will then be introduced to three small live animals from the Zoo's Education Department. If you would like the Zoo to visit multiple times, we have 4 different sessions to keep your group interested and entertained.
